Dear Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 25th July 1927, and to say that His Highness very much regrets that this office letter of the 6th July 1927 should have unintentionally given rise to a misunderstanding hurting your feelings. I am to assure you that nothing of the kind that is implied in your letter accounted for not extending the invitation to you for the Silver Jubilee Celebration in Mysore, which was purely a local function. His Highness will be delighted if you could come to Mysore as his guest for the ensuing Dasara. On hearing from you a formal invitation will be sent. Of course you will have to attend the Darbars and conform to the local etiquette to which I feel sure you will have no objection.

Yours sincerely,

T.N.S. Tirthapathi, Esq.,
Reminder of Dingampatti.
